Get There Without Going Anywhere(sm) June, 2002

We are often asked, "And just what are the environmental opportunities for AT&T?" Seems like a logical question given that AT&T is a service company and not a manufacturer. And a question that we at AT&T initially struggled with when AT&T spun off its manufacturing arms - Lucent Technologies and NCR - in 1996. But, it did not take us too long to realize that as a communications company, AT&T's products offer potentially tremendous opportunities to allow individuals to 'get there without going anywhere(sm)'.

The following AT&T press releases describe AT&T products and services that have the potential to produce environmental and social benefits. Products that allow you to 'get there without going anywhere,' potentially resulting in a reduction of pollutants associated with unnecessary travel:

AT&T Labs Announces New Technology to Capture and Reproduce Live Concerts
